

Published on US Immigration Lawyer, Law Offices of Rajiv S. Khanna, PC, Rajiv S. Khanna (<https://immigration.com>)

Share Your Thoughts - Employment change after receiving GC

Share Your Thoughts - Employment change after receiving GC ^[1]

Submitted by Chief Editor on Aug 27th 2018

Country:

United States

I have worked for my US based employer (Company 'A') since 2004 on H1 after completing MS, and have applied for GC with them in 2008 in EB2. In 2011 I have relocated back to India while GC application was pending and changed my processing to 'Consular Processing'. While I was in India, I have my GC approved in November 2013 thru Consular Processing.

I have moved back to US in March 2013, and immediately started my own S-Corp and started working for my own company since then. so, in essence, I have really not worked for the employer who sponsored my GC and never received a paycheck from them.

As I understand, during the citizenship interview, USCIS might say that I have not worked for my employer after getting my GC and reject my petition. I would like to understand your experience and suggestions regarding this.

Share your thoughts on this topic: Employment Change After Receiving GC^[2]

Citizenship and Naturalization:

Citizenship ^[3]

Naturalization ^[4]

Source URL (retrieved on 2 Jul 2020 - 18:02): <https://immigration.com/community-stories/share-your-thoughts-employment-change-after-receiving-gc>

Links:

[1] <https://immigration.com/community-stories/share-your-thoughts-employment-change-after-receiving-gc>

[2] <https://forums.immigration.com/threads/employment-change-after-receiving-gc-implications-on-naturalization.338230/#post-2479960>

[3] <https://immigration.com/citizenship/citizenship-and-naturalization/citizenship>

[4] <https://immigration.com/citizenship/citizenship-and-naturalization/naturalization>